Pam,
 I've known
 you a long time, but it seems that just the year I really got to know you. I wish for you the best of luck.
 Spring 73 1/2
 and your sister / still looking / great I would be

P.S. Henry, I think
 I met your sister in Stamps you approved!

of our affairs.

May God guide you and give you a happy and prosperous life!

Remember last year in your guide - I said I would be expecting a wedding invitation? Well, I'm still waiting!
Good luck in everything - I'm with sister!

new. Well, I've taken up a page and I haven't said anything exciting, but I'm not an exciting person. I've tried to say what I feel, but I don't do a very good job. But that's okay because you all know how I feel and that's all that matters! Right

So now, I give birth to your my best wishes.
Yes, Sam, with love through a lot - you & I have. And I don't require a single bit of it! There was a purpose and I can see it

Sam, I love you dearly and I love that could hurt you or harm our beautiful friendship. I love you too! And I know that you two will make for each other!

I hope that everything will work out for you. Please remember to trust in the Lord. Anyhow, it's so hard to live the Christian life!
You & I have both had trouble along that and we can see it, so there is no use in kicking yourself around. Sam, Jim really close to that now - we like two peas in the pod! And Jim praying for you & Mary.

Yam, in the 3'13 years. We know you, we have had some trouble mis-understandings; we have lived on each others shoulders so much, we could have wrong each other's shoes out and the tires would have quite tire-outer-ture; we've had so many good times, that I really don't think of the acture back times!

③ But that's not what I want to say

Jo Pam,
Well, here I am again. Only it's 1 year later, a new yearbook, your editor and a tan mixer. Pam, I could start out with the issue - ex. give a sweet a very cute person! (then you are, by the way)

These are Plainsmen.
This is Enid High.

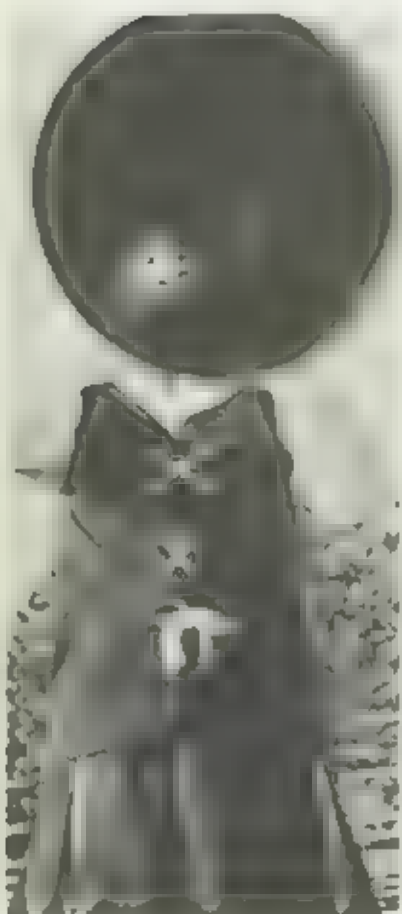

Monday morning
and the world crashes in.
Dreams, thin, shatter and alarm-clock sirens lure you into
monday morning.

Cold, cold, water
and toothbrush,
pepsodent.
Soggy Wheaties,
and frozen battery push you into
monday morning.

Yellow school-bus, icy-heater, broken, chugholes, stoplights, groaning bus, screeching cars
You are inside monday morning

Caught in a world of change, turmoil endless searching for meaning hidden some where deep within our minds
High school is the place you go to find the answers, only to find more questions and they are in a very good mood a lot of good people are here but that's what you want says I don't doubt it you are all these things. But we have had some trouble here we are not and we don't want to be that kind of people, and that's all.

Answer
 T & Wise Guy

79 (See history)

This is the mood of our times
 There is learning, peace, tranquility satisfaction with life — as people meet smile, change and exchange ideas,
 think and love

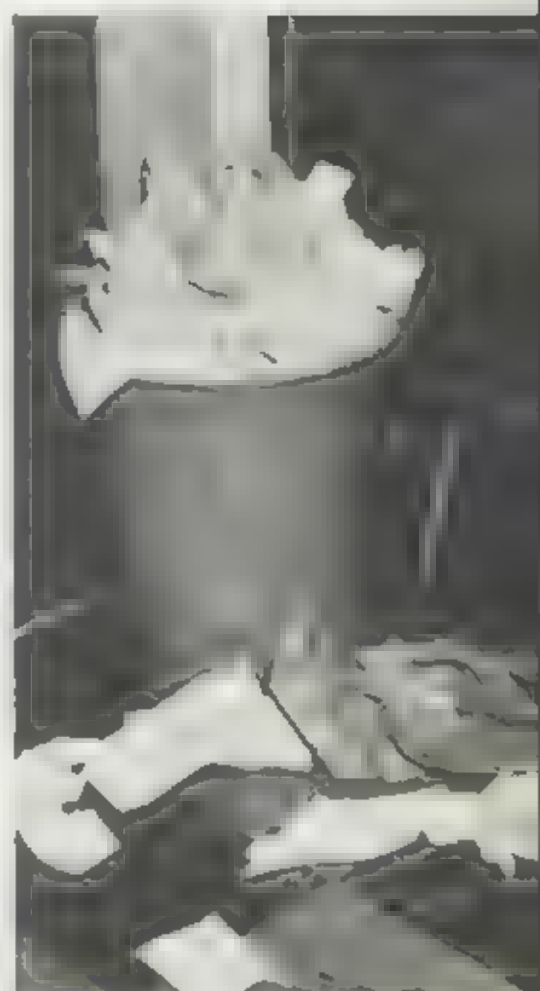

We come . . . and we listen
we agree . . . and we argue we question . . . and we
answer

[Faint handwritten notes, possibly "The ..."]

Our individuality demands
we put our energetic attitudes into the living of each moment into the adventure of becoming

Why do anything?
Because man is not a finished creation
but tomorrow's possibility

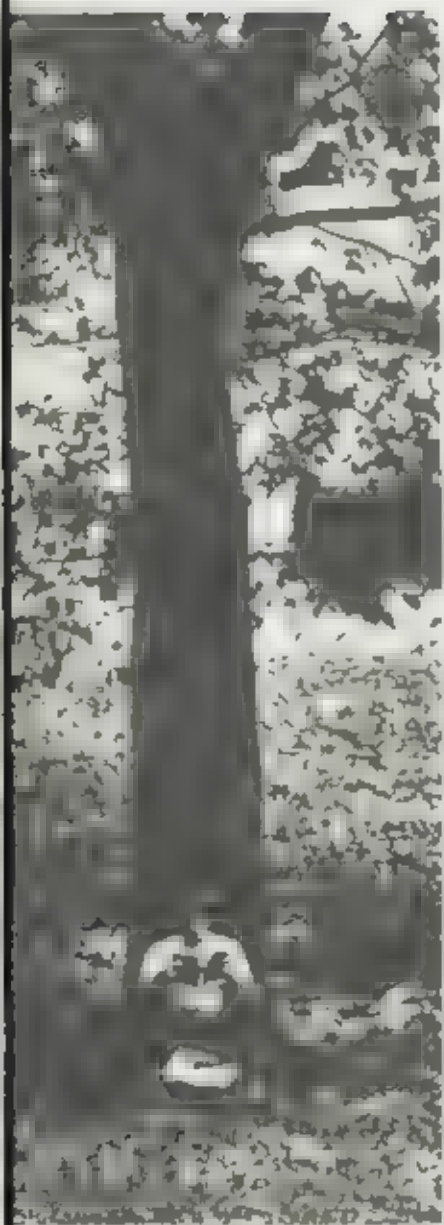

As many looks as there are people . . . the traditional . . . the innovative . . . the standard the free-swinging individuality of the new generation . . . to each his own . . . an extension of our personalities . . . what we are or hope to be . . . the change and the contrast that 1972 has seen in people the substance of Plainsman Images

Administration: Management And Service-Oriented

Superintendent O. T. Autry came to the Enid Public Schools in 1934 as a teacher at Emerson Junior High School. He served Emerson for six years as principal and became Enid High School Principal in 1959.

The Board of Education appointed Mr. Autry as Superintendent in 1964 and he has led a vigorous program for the district making outstanding progress in special education and in vocational technical facilities for the students of district #57. This period has also seen increased counseling services, the establishment of a Psychological-Sociological Services Center and the integration of the student bodies. Emphasis has been on in-service training for teachers and the utilization of technological developments.

MR. AUTRY

Conferences with Mr. Mauk are important parts of Mr. Autry's schedule.

MR. ALLIE PAINE President of School Board

School Board

1971-1972 brought some exciting progress to the school district. New construction was completed at the Coolidge School and O. T. Autry Vo-Tech center. Academic standards were held high with continuing evaluation and an administrator in each elementary school. The open concept of instruction areas built around media centers, with emphasis upon individualization, was initiated. A variety of special education classes were added and a reading specialist was employed to serve the district. A feeling of transition was in the air with human relations and continued curriculum excellence.

Involvement Reflects Guidance Dept.

MR. DENNIS ISELIN
Assistant Principal

Dealing with student problems and accepting the many tasks of administration are obligations of the Assistant Principals. Mr. Iselin and Mr. Niles help students to achieve a greater sense of responsibility and to understand their surroundings.

MR. TOM NILES
Assistant Principal

New to the Guidance Department this year are Mr. Nolan Hackler and Mr. Lloyd Ray. Together with Mrs. Nellie McCreary, head of this department, Mr. Zornis Berry, and Mrs. Ann Martin, they help students gain an understanding of their future plans and guide them toward these goals.

Errol Kesner Chapter of the National Honor Society cited many honors this year. Six members were named finalists and ten members commended students in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

To be accepted in the Honor Society, students are required to maintain a 3.35 grade average and be approved by a majority of the teachers for character, leadership, and service.

E.H.S. Chorus Creates Musical Moods

This year the Enid High School Mixed Chorus made its debut in the Thanksgiving Assembly. They presented to the student body in their program several songs related to Thanksgiving. Christmas brought with it various performances for the chorus. They were given the honor during this season of singing for several of the civic clubs in Enid. They relived the deep spiritual meaning of Christmas in the traditional assembly presented on the Enid High stage.

The climax of the year was the annual spring chorus program produced by the vocal music department.

Array Of Talent Distinguishes . . .

Of all the classes old and new there'll never be a class like '72

Dreams became realities as the seniors participated in their traditional activities. Three years of high school were climaxed by homecoming celebrations, the senior play, the prom, Junior-Senior Reception, and May Fete. The seniors also inherited the many privileges that go along with their new title of leaders in the high school.

With commencement the class of '72 will pass into the world beyond high school. The past three years will become a composite of memories both good and bad to look back upon, and the years ahead will continue to add to the knowledge and experience already gained within the walls of Enid High School.

Plainsmen pride and spirit won overall. In its first 6 appearances on the grid the team put on a most astonishing performance. But their luck ran out in the next trio, dropping a chance to the State playoffs.

But Plainsmen spirit prevailed. The Big Blue were able to keep their heads up, for against Muskogee it was a different story.

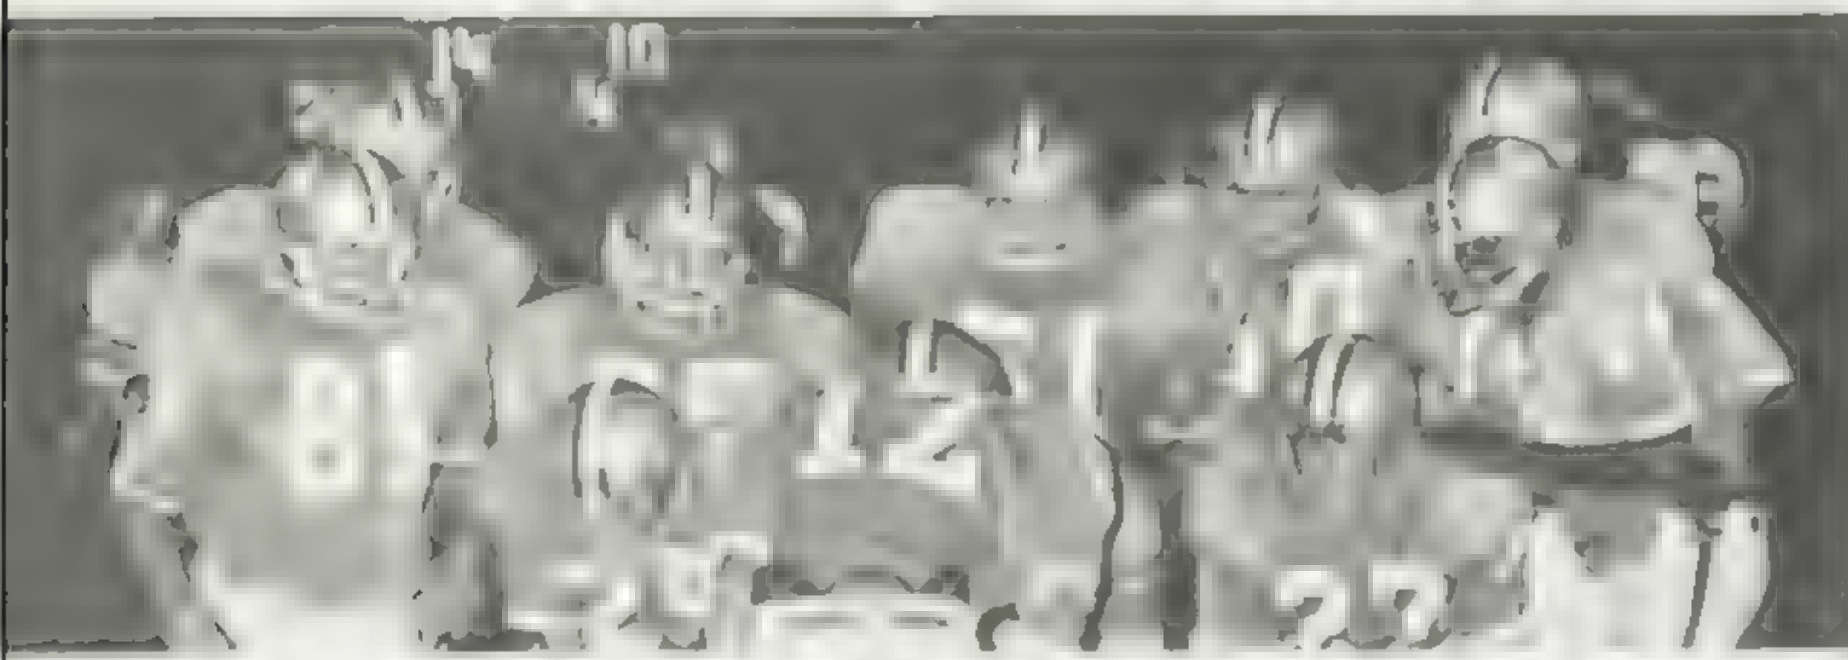

The following week the Plainsmen found themselves under when Hale battered them.

The enthusiasm of both the team and the whole community was overwhelming, and to many around the state, Big Blue will be recognized as a most dreaded opponent.

Plainsman Terry Moulton wrestles Tulsa Rogers player to the turf.

All conference, wideback Harvey Marks, also left play for the Plainsmen.

Enid traveled to Lawton to open the season. After dropping one, the Big Blue bounced back to win the season opener.

Sparked by a new draftee, the Plainsmen gained momentum. Irving Caldwell from Dover was the Spirit stick as he carried the Plainsmen to victory. Big Joe Hysell, using his height and agility, then started pumping shots over the heads of the opponents. Led by their two fine shooting big men and the rebounding Unruh, Big Blue turned in a favorable season.

E.H.S. Players "Ask Any Girl"

The all school play is a drama written by Winifred Wolfe. Meg Wheeler feels stifled in her small home town where she's just graduated from college. So Meg comes to New York intent on enlarging her horizon — by that she means finding a husband. While living in a boarding house she meets the business head of an important advertising agency and the plot begins.

One Act Play Qualifies For Statewide Competition

This year the regional one act play was held at EHS and English entry "The Bad Guy" placed first. The play itself is typed as Theater of the Absurd and ridicules the typical English life.

Prediction of a victory

Cooperation was the name of the game as Enid High staged its first all-school musical. An orchestra under the direction of Mr. Eugene Griffin, a huge cast of actors directed by Mrs. Delyle Poindexter, a chorus directed by Mrs. Maurine Priebe and realistic stage settings designed by Mr. Eldon Ames and Mr. Jim Giles combined to make Enid High School's rendition of "Li'l Abner" a smashing success. The two-night performance attracted hundreds of showgoers from all over the county and made all the weeks of exhausting work seem worthwhile.

We're here to open books, to learn, to assimilate the old and the new, to experience, to teach, to help . . . and when we have company, it's easier to smile

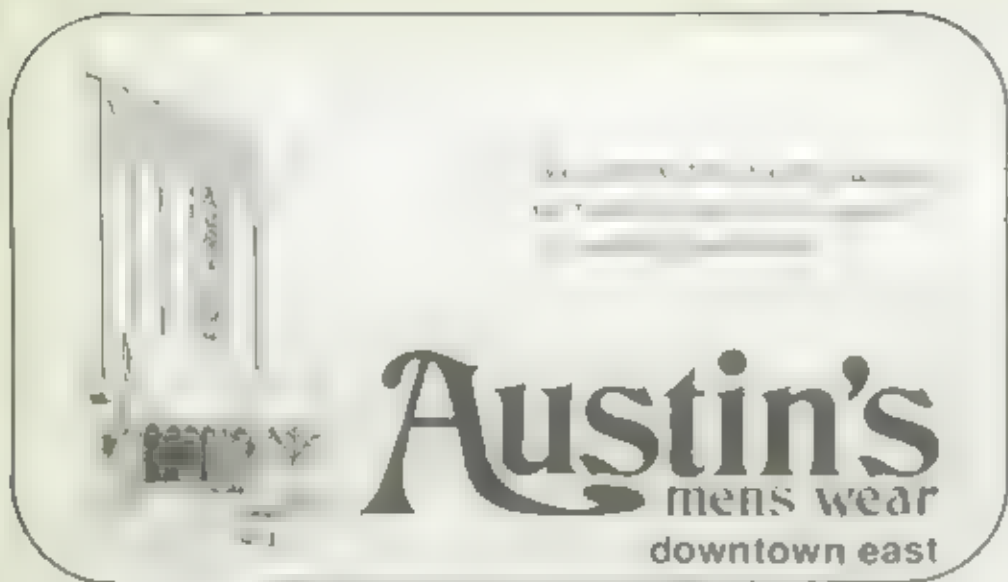

Things we see, the things we hear and feel but seldom appreciate or seldom really notice . . . our school is all about us when we take time to stop, to see, and to appreciate

Keep in tune with the time—

For the past 44 years I have been the photographer for Enid High School although it seems only a short time I have walked through these halls many years and still stop to look at the old and new senior class pictures. My senior picture hangs on the wall on third floor — class of 1927.

My father Gene McConkay in 1910 made the first pictures for the Quil Annual. In this ad I have looked up some of the people that have had a hand in putting out the Quil Annual. The people were editors in chief making this book possible. In 1908-09 — Karl Green 1909-10 — Marquis James 1911 — Lois Troy 1912 — Douglas Frantz 1913 — George Field 1914 — Harry Bass, 1915 — Harry Kornbaum 1916 — Floyd Tucker 1917 — Harold J. Godschaek 1918 — William Earl Leslie. After the war they were called supervisors of Quil Annual. From 1919 to 1922 Miss Louise A. Wilson was supervisor of the Quil Annual for five years up to 1927. Then Mr. Ralph Miller in 1927 to 1933 had charge of the Quil. That year we didn't put out an annual but the McConkays made the photographs for the wall panels and that year was the beginning of the Quil Magazine. In 1934 Ralph Miller and Charlotte Kretsch were supervisors of the Quil Annual until 1939 then Kathryn Belar and Ruth Scott put out the annual. Then in 1943 to 1945 Mr. V. O. Marshall and Ruth Scott were sponsors. Then Ruth Scott was sponsor of the Quil Annual from 1946 to 1966 a total of 21 years. Mrs. Jannette Norman was adviser of Quil Annual for 1967-1969. Mrs. Ruth Hodgson was sponsor for 1970-1971.

Now we have Mr. Jim Morris in his first year putting out a new kind or should we say a new look at Enid High School. Through the eyes and hands of this year's Quil Annual staff they have put together a new look for the Quil '72. I am glad to have a part in the making of photographs for this book.

An education means more than just going to class and taking notes and listening to lectures we sometimes don't want to hear. It means more than examinations and registration for the next semester. It is more than a requirement and more than a means to an end. High School is a way of life, yet is somehow more than this.

When you were my best friend and I really
you in class.
of luck as a
next years

Pam-

It's been great having a sweet girl like you in my first home room. If all students could be like you - teaching would be a lark! Good luck in the
